

Letter from Gardiner Greene Hubbard to Alexander Graham Bell, January 26, 1879, with transcript

L. 1879 Telephone Washington, January 26. Reorganization of company

G. G. H. to A. G. Bell: — I have received your telegram asking me to be with you on Monday. I cannot leave unless it is absolutely necessary, as a gentleman is to be here tomorrow, or Monday, from Kansas, especially to see me. I do not, however, see what I can do in relation to the New England Tel. Co. You will have my proxy and Mabel's and that with Sanders' stock will probably give you a majority; as some of the others will be absent. If, therefore, anything important is proposed you can either postpone or defeat it. If Sanders does not act with us then I should be of no use.

I do not see any objection to the doings on Thursday, excepting abolishing the Ex. Co., which is not right. I have written to Eustis about that and you will see that letter.

We are all very well — I am very glad you are in Boston, It is very fortunate you were sent for .
